

FEBRUARY 2019 — ADI NEWS ALERT

This alert¹ covers:

- TrueFiling upgrade coming March 18 in Fourth District
 - Dependency Case Law Update on March 7

TrueFiling update scheduled for March 18 in all three divisions of the Fourth District

TrueFiling 3.0 is coming to the Fourth District on March 18, 2019! More information is available at the TrueFiling website, including login information, registration for training webinars, and a link to a pre-recorded training video.

Dependency Case Law Update on March 7

On Thursday, March 7, 2019, at noon in the ADI Paul Bell Library, Laura L. Furness, ADI staff attorney, will update ADI staff attorneys and panel members about new cases, trends in recent case law, and successes in dependency appeals. The program is pre-approved for one hour of general MCLE credit.

Personal attendance is encouraged but, if you are unable to attend, you can listen to a live audio broadcast. The live audio broadcast login information is at the end of this email.

ADI has identified two nearby parking garages that are reported to have many parking spaces available at lunchtime. (No guarantee, of course.) Click here for information: Parking Near Appellate Defenders.

¹As always, panel attorneys are responsible for familiarizing themselves with all ADI news alerts and other resources on the ADI website.

Our office is also only a few short blocks from three San Diego Trolley stations: County Center/Little Italy (Green Line), Courthouse (Orange Line), and America Plaza (Blue Line).
