Practice tip: A request for depublication of an opinion must be made to the Supreme Court within 30 days after the opinion becomes final in the Court of Appeal. (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 8.1125(a).) The request must not exceed 10 pages. It must state the requester's interest and explain concisely why the decision should be depublished. Serve the request on the Court of Appeal and all the parties. (Rule 8.1125(a).) The Court of Appeal or any person may respond within 10 days. (Rule 8.1125(b).)

Practice tip: Requests for depublication are discussed in chapter 7, § 7.27 of the ADI Manual.

Practice Tip: If the appellant in the underlying case is petitioning for review, counsel may file this depublication request, with appropriate modifications, as a combined "me-too" amicus curiae letter under rule 8.500(g) and request for depublication under rule 8.1125.

DISCUSSION

[Expand on reasons for not having opinion remain citable and binding under Auto Equity.]

[Optional:] Appellant recognizes that normally depublication by this court is and should be reserved for unusual situations in which publication of an opinion by the Court of Appeal may do harm, but the case may not otherwise be appropriate for granting review. This is such a case.

[Explain how the Court of Appeal's opinion could do harm.]

CONCLUSION

[Summarize position and relief requested.]

Respectfully submitted,
